PYRAMID

A metal structure covered in natural woven wicker

Combining materials, one of the secrets of successful decoration in the garden! This refined obelisk combines combines metal and natural wicker. You can place it in your flower borders or in your pot-grown climbing plants such as Passionflower.

Benefits

A metal structure clad in natural woven wicker. Is easily planted in a border or pot thanks to its feet. Its form makes it very stable to withstand the weight of the plants. The wicker and metal combination gives a craft and natural look expected in the garden.

Characteristics

Wicker and steel with epoxy paint. Lightweight, easy and quick to install. 4 11 cm metal feet. Lifetime according to the climate. Store inside in winter.

Ref.	Size.	Color
2014444	0,30 x 1,30 m	